
Function of Knights

John of Salisbury
Twelfth Century

What is the office of the duly ordained soldiery? To defend the Church, to assail infidelity, to venerate the priesthood, to protect the poor from injuries, to pacify the province, to pour out their blood for their brothers (as the formula of their oath instructs them), and, if need be, to lay down their lives. The high praises of God are in their throat, and two-edged swords are in their hands to execute punishment on the nations and rebuke upon the peoples, and to bind their kings in chains and their nobles in links of iron. But to what end? To the end that they may serve madness, vanity, avarice, or their own private self-will? By no means. Rather to the end that they may execute the judgement that is committed to them to execute; wherein each follows not his own will but the deliberate decision of God, the angels, and men, in accordance with equity and the public utility ... For soldiers that do these things are "saints" and are the more loyal to the prince in proportion as they more zealously keep the faith of God; and they advance the more successfully the honour of their own valour as they seek the more faithfully in all things the glory of their God.

from Their Royal Majesties

To all the Good Populace of the Outlands, do We Kynan and Eleanor send greetings this glorious day.Summer is fading and with it camping season is drawing to a close. We have greatly enjoyed Our tour of the Kingdom so far and have been touched by the generosity and kindness you have shone. Thank you.

Thank you very much to Lady Maria Sol de León who has accepted the office of kingdom scribe. Thank you as well to THL Maredudd for your years of service to the scribble arts and to Baroness Chendra for your efforts as the interim officer.

The time has come for Heirs and a new Warlord to be found. We hope that all will come to witness the deeds done upon the tourney field the second week of this month in the fair Barony of Unser Hafen.

October brings with it cold days and nights, which allow us to turn our attention to more artistic endeavors. We encourage everyone to participate in the A&S competition/collegium held on the second Weekend of October. Her Majesty has declared the theme to be 'Gothic', but all entries and classes are welcome. It will be lots of fun - and educational to boot!

In October We will be traveling to parley with Our good cousins for Estrella War. In the October OH We will publish the appointments to the War Council. We are accepting applications until September 15th, please let Us know if you are interested in any of the positions.

Thank you to all the Outlanders who traveled to the far lands of Pennsic. As always, your actions make me honored to be Queen of the greatest kingdom of the Know World!

May you enjoy new and old companionship on your journeys,

Kynan

The Barony of al-Barran cordially invites you to join us for a day of festivities at the third annual Esperanza event.

During the Middle Ages, at the height of chivalry, there was a day much celebrated throughout the European countries. This day was known as Michaelmas to honor Archangel Michael, the first champion. By this title of champion he was recognized as the patron of the many orders of knighthood. On his Feast Day (September 29), all the angels are honored as is St. Michael.

Bring forth your period pavilions, let your banners soar and dress up in your finest garb as we celebrate Hope (Esperanza) and the Feast of Angels (Fiesta de Los Angeles). Invite your co-workers, friends and neighbors that they may experience the chivalry, courtesy and hospitality of our fair Barony.

We will have heavy and light weapons tourneys as well as a youth blade tournament this year. Heralds are needed to cry the challenges and proclaim feats of skill. We will have Arts & Science exhibitions, contests*, youth activities and more. A variety of period foods will be offered to delight the palate.

Donations of period foods are needed for the groaning board. These can be food or drink, main or side dishes or desserts. We will also have a prize table this year. Officer's Reports

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Good Day All,

As you read these letters many good souls are preparing to repeat the most important event to take place in during any reign. They are preparing to select the Kings heir and ensure the smooth succession of the Crown. I would encourage all good gentles of the Outlands to travel to the Barony of Unser Hafen to watch this grand spectacle, as many of the finest fighters in this Kingdom contest for the privilege of serving as our Sovereign.

If you were planning of being one of those contestants and you have not yet provided His Majesty Kynan with your letter of intent, or contacted me to verify your membership, there may be great wailing and gnashing of teeth in your lodge this night. The following is the requirements for entrants into the Outlands Crown Tournament:

Outlands Kingdom Law.
III.B. Prospective entrants and consorts shall present themselves before the Crown on the day of the Crown Lists. No consort may be fought for by more than one entrant. The entrants shall state their intent to fight to the best of their ability for the glory of the Outlands. Emergency absence of the prospective consort may be considered by the Crown on a case-by-case basis.

III.C. To be eligible for the Crown Lists, the entrant and prospective consort must meet all of the following requirements in addition to those stated in Corpora:

1. Be acceptable to the Sovereign.
2. Be at least eighteen (18) years of age by the scheduled Coronation.
3. Have resided within the boundaries of the Outlands for the six (6) consecutive months immediately prior to the day of the Crown Lists.
4. Have regular means of quick communication, dependable transportation, and sufficient income to support the Crown should they win.

5. Be knowledgeable of the structure and laws of the Kingdom of the Outlands and the Society.
6. The entrant must be an authorized fighter of good standing.
7. Be current members of the Society for Creative Anachronism as evidenced by proof from the Registrar.

As always I will be verifying memberships directly with membership services. This means that I will be unable to verify your membership on the day of the tournament. If you don't believe it just ask Her Majesty. If you have questions about the requirements of this glorious upcoming tournament, contact Their Majesties, or myself.

For all of you good gentles who wish to know more about the structure and laws of the society as mentioned above, the new edition of the Organizational Handbook is now online. You may secure your own personal copy by going to http://www.sca.org/docs/OrgHandbook20010605.pdf on the World Wide Web.

That's all this month. As always, have fun and be safe.

On June 29 AS XXXVI being 2001 in the common era a Curia Regis was conducted in the matter of Master Turgeis av Markland's conduct at the Lonely Mountain Defender. Through common agreement with His Majesty, Master Turgeis has placed his Baldric in abayance and has set aside SCA activities

From the Archer General

Dear lords and ladies my name is THL Larke the Fletcher and as of July 7, THL Ailinn Shadowfox retired as Archer General and Their Majesties accepted me as her successor. I have been shooting for more years than I care to count. I am a fletcher by trade and for the SCA. I have been playing in the SCA for over 22 years now. I am a Sharparrow and a companion of the Golden Pheon and at this past Outlandish I had the honor of winning the Royal Archer Tournament.

Many thanks to Lady Ailinn for her great works and service for the Kingdom. I would very much like to thank all of the Deputy AGs, COAs, their deputies, and anyone else who has assisted them for the great work that they have done for THL Ailinn over the past few years.

I would also like to thank all that were able to attend this years Stagscon to discuss the future of archery in the Outlands and pick up the new archery information available.

This leads us to the reminders. Reports are due from each COA and DAG monthly even if it's just a postcard or email indicating that no activity took place. Please direct all monthly reports to my clerk at this address:
Baron Knut Eldfimr c/o Robert Newton - 1973 Academy Blvd. Colo. Springs, CO 80909 or to the Archer General email address:
oag@pcisys.net.

Please continue to direct all score reports to the Kingdom Scorekeeper, THL Leofsige O Caoimh known as Lyssa, whose contact info is inside the back cover of the OH. Score reports for Royal Rounds are due to Lyssa within 30 days of the shoot. Score reports for IKACs are due to Lyssa within 14 days of the shoot. Do not directly report IKAC scores to the IKAC scorekeeper as we maintain one point of contact for the kingdom to simplify the IKAC scorekeeper's job.

We will begin renewing all Marshal of the Field cards in October. There will be a new test and application form for this renewal. I would like all Baronial COAs to take at least one deputy. These deputies should send at least one report every six months so that when you are ready to step down you have a trained officer to take over. These deputies should become Marshals of the Field within their first six months. I know that shires, cantons and colleges may not able to maintain deputies, but I encourage you to take deputies whenever possible and teach them to assist you in office transitions and assist them in becoming Marshals of the Field. Reminder for those with web access, forms, handbooks and other useful information are available at the Outlands Archer General web page at: www.pcisys.net/~lyssa/outlands/archgen.html.

In service to my kingdom,
THL Daniel Larke of Fletcher's Glen

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Hail populace of the Outlands,

September is upon us and Crown Tournament is right around the corner.

To all fighters who plan on participating in the list, I urge you to take some time to go over your all weapons and armor. Do not only make sure that it is in good repair, but also insure that you are presentable for this august occasion. While on the subject, I would ask all fighters in the Outlands to do the same. Corpora REQUIRES anyone attending an SCA event to make an attempt at pre 17th century dress, this applies on the fighting field as well. What separates our combat from modern sport are the ideals of honor and chivalry that we bring to it.

Immersion into those ideals is helped not only by our actions, but by the spectacular panoply displayed on the field. Take some time to look over your rig, and try to replace anything blatantly modern looking with something more authentic, or find a clever way to disguise it.

Where you can, cover up that plastic armor with a tunic or surcoat or pants, switch out the tennis shoes for some period footwear, or at the least something less obviously modern. These things won't just make you look better, they'll help to enrich the medieval experience we are trying to create for everyone around you.

With that, I bid you all fight well and honorably and be safe,

Hrothgar

From the Kingdom Scribe

Warm greetings to all who read these letters,

I am writing to introduce myself as the newly appointed Kingdom Scribe of the Outlands. I was invested in the office at Lonely Mountain.

First and foremost I want to thank Their Royal Majesties for their faith in me. A hearty thanks also to The Honorable Lady Maredudd and Interim Kingdom Scribe, Bannthegn Chendra Rudd ferch Arainwen as well as their deputies, Ban-Fili Cailte Caitchairn, Mistress Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova, The Honorable Lady Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina, Lady Killian MacKenzie, and Lady Taryn Brannick for their service, time and commitment given to the Kingdom.

I also want to thank all the scribes for your work and patience. Your work is highly valued and appreciated. I ask for your patience a little while longer as I transition the office. I will be posting to the Outlands Scribes list as developments occur (instructions for joining can be found at www.scribesweb.net). I highly recommend every active scribe to join this list if at all possible. For those of you who would like more information about me, I have posted an article at the Scribes Web site, www.scribesweb.net. Click on Feature Articles.

I encourage any who are interested in creating scrolls for the Crown to contact me by any means listed below. I invite your questions, concerns and counsel. I invited and encouragd scribes of every level and interest to join us at Stags Con on August 11 and 12, I thank those who attended.

Prospero:
You do look, my son, in a moved sort,
As if you were dismayed: be cheerful, sir.
Our revels now are ended. These our actors,
As I foretold you, were all spirits and
Are melted into air, into thin air;
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve,
And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rack behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on, and out little life
Is rounded with sleep. Sir, I am vexed.
Bear with my weakness: my old brain is troubled.
Be not disturbed with my infirmity.
If you be pleased, retire into my cell
And there repose. A turn or two I'll walk
To still my beating mind.

The Camel & Jupiter

A camel became jealous when he saw what splendid horns the bull had. So he went to Jupiter, the king of the gods, and asked for horns. Jupiter grew angry and said, "Since you're not satisfied with the big strong body I gave you, and you want more than you're supposed to have -- not only do I refuse to give you horns, but I'm going to take away a part of your ears." And that is why the camel has such small ears for such a large animal.

Moral: Don't ask for more; things may be better just as they are.

Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
